- Letters of support from a national federation and relevant local authorities.
- Guarantee issued by a first-class bank (or a government guarantee if approved by the FIDE Council) for the amount of three hundred thousand (300,000) euros to support the bid. In case the winner of the bidding procedure fails to fulfil the requirements set out in Article 6.8, the entire amount shall be transferred in favour of FIDE.

6. 5. Financial obligations of the Organiser include (unless otherwise specified in the contract with the Organiser):

- a) Obligation to pay one million (1,000,000) euros net of any applicable local taxes not later than 18 months before the beginning of the FIDE Chess Olympiad as a lump sum including the FIDE contribution, charge for internet rights and commercial rights (see Chapter 8);
- b) Obligation to pay at least one million five hundred thousand (1,500,000) euros for travel expenses for the delegations of federations eligible for full or partial reimbursement of travel expenses (see Articles 4.8.1);
- c) Obligation to pay fifty thousand (50,000) euros in order to cover expenses related to inspections according to Articles 2.3; 2.5 as well as to other expenses if necessary;
- d) Obligation to cover other expenses related to the organisation of the Main Competition, the Competition for Players with Disabilities and the FIDE Congress according to Articles 7.3.1; 7.3.2; 7.4; 7.8.2 of these Regulations, Regulations related to the Competition for Players with Disabilities and the FIDE Congress Regulations and the contract signed between FIDE and the Organiser (which may contain other financial obligations according to usual practice for top-level events) not later than 2 months before the beginning of the Main Competition (see Article 7.2).
- e) Obligations as per Article 6.4 with respect to the bank guarantee and in accordance with the Articles 6.8 – 6.9 hereof.
- f) Obligation to cover expenses related to organising the events as specified in the Article 6.3 hereof.

At the moment of applying for the organisation of the FIDE Chess Olympiad the Applicant pays a non-refundable fee of five thousand (5,000) euros.

6. 6. Upon receipt of the bidding form, GSC shall assign 2 officials to inspect the relevant facilities at the Organiser's expense. The inspectors shall submit the evaluation report to FIDE Council.

6. 7. Four years before the FIDE Chess Olympiad, the General Assembly shall make its final decision by ranking all the Applicants in order of the number of votes received.

6. 8. Within 1 month after being awarded the organisation of the Main Competition the winner of the bidding procedure shall transfer one hundred thousand (100,000) euros in favour of FIDE as a first payment.

In addition, within 3 months after being awarded the organisation of the Main Competition Organiser shall sign a contract with FIDE specifying: (i) all financial and commercial aspects of the Main Competition, the Competition for Players with Disabilities and the FIDE Congress and (ii) an obligation to submit a financial guarantee issued by the bank, which is included in Top [100] World Banks from the rate published by the <https://www.thebankerdatabase.com/>, or another bank which may be agreed with FIDE for the amount of two million (2,000,000) euros related to the organisation of the Main Competition, the Competition for Players with Disabilities and the FIDE Congress (see Article 6.4) within one month after signing the contract. Alternatively, the Organiser may secure a direct prepayment of at least one million (1,000,000) euros to FIDE bank account instead of such guarantee.

6. 9. If the Applicant is unable to sign the contract within 3 months or provide FIDE within 4 months with the guarantee of the amount of two million (2,000,000) euros as stipulated in Article 6.8, three hundred thousand (300,000) euros shall go to FIDE in accordance with Article 6.4. This deadline may be extended by the FIDE President.

6. 10. If the Applicant fails to sign the contract (see Article 6.9), FIDE Council shall offer the privilege to the Applicant ranked second. The procedure stipulated in Article 6.8 shall be repeated.

6. 11. If none of the first two Applicants is able to sign the contract, then FIDE Council shall offer the privilege to the Applicant ranked third or reopens the bidding procedure which shall be completed by the following FIDE Congress.

7. Financial issues

7. 3. 2. Any Principal who is active at the Main Competition for only part of the time shall receive only a pro rata portion of his/her stipend.

7. 4. Travel expenses of the FIDE Principals

The FIDE President has the right to business class travel by air, sea or rail, at the Organiser's expense. If other travel conditions are not specified in the contract signed by the Organiser and FIDE, all other Principals shall be compensated by the Organiser for their travel expenses up to a maximum of one thousand (1,000) euros if travelling from the same continent, up to one thousand five hundred (1,500) euros if travelling from another continent.

7. 5. Accommodation of the FIDE Principals

Accommodation with full board in a suite in a 4-5-star hotel shall be offered by the Organiser for the FIDE President. Accommodation with full board in a standard room in the same hotel shall be offered by the Organiser for each Principal. Alternatively, the Organiser may substitute full board with a daily allowance. The amount of the allowance shall be indicated in the contract between the Organiser and FIDE. Extra expenses shall be covered by the Organiser only for the FIDE President.

7. 6. Local transportation

Transfer from and to the airport shall be provided by the Organiser, if necessary. A sufficient number of cars shall be made available for Principals and FIDE employees; their use shall depend on the position of the hotels, playing hall and media centre. Alternatively, a daily allowance in local currency may be provided, the amount shall be agreed between the Organiser and GSC. Local transport shall also be provided for the players to official functions, if necessary.

7. 7. Medical care

7. 7. 1. The Organiser shall cover the costs of treating acute illnesses including the cost of medicines, but not chronic ailments of the players, captains, Chiefs of delegations, FIDE Principals and FIDE employees.

7. 7. 2. The Organiser shall cover the costs related to the medical protocol (see Article 4.11.10).

7. 8. Provision for the Match Arbiters and Fair-Play Experts

7. 8. 1. The Organiser shall provide foreign Match Arbiters (at least one hundred) and 18 Fair-Play Experts with free accommodation with full board (place in a double room).

7. 8. 2. The Organiser shall pay each foreign Match Arbiter and each Fair-Play Expert the fee of one thousand five hundred (1,500) euros (if from the same continent) or two thousand (2,000) euros (if not from the same continent) including travel expenses.

7. 8. 3. All expenses and stipends for local Match Arbiters shall be covered by the Organiser.

7. 9. Personnel

The Organiser shall provide sufficient personnel including security stuff to assist in the playing hall, press room, VIP room, and at Ceremonies according to the contract between the Organiser and FIDE.

7. 10. Fair-play measures

The Organiser shall cover the related costs associated with implementing the fair-play regulations according to requirements of the FIDE Fair-Play Commission, excluding all the expenses for the Fair-Play Officers and Fair-Play Experts.

7. 11. Anti-doping control

The Organiser shall cover the costs related to anti-doping testing (see Article 4.11.11) in accordance with the requirements of the FIDE Medical Commission.

7. 12. Broadcast

The Organiser shall provide quality broadcast of the Main Competition, Opening and Closing Ceremonies subject to the standards and requirements approved by FIDE and bear all the related costs. The Organiser shall be responsible for providing a quality commentary of the Main Competition in the language of the hosting country, in English language and at least two other languages to be approved by FIDE. Organisers also shall be obliged to deliver broadcast feed(s) to FIDE and its broadcasting partners as per FIDE's obligations with FIDE's broadcasting partners.

8. Commercial issues

8. 1. The commercial rights of the Organiser include:

8. 1. 1. The non-exclusive right to conduct the organisation, promotion, formation, carrying out, management, financing and exploitation of the Main Competition by all manner and means without infringing the IOC Code of Ethics and the well-established practice regarding sponsorship implied by FIDE's recognition by the IOC, and unless otherwise provided or limited in these Regulations.

8. 1. 2. Non-exclusive marketing and commercial sponsorship rights with respect to the Main Competition and the sale, exploitation or other disposal of all commercial rights, facilities and licenses, including product placement rights with respect to the Main Competition.

8. 1. 3. The right to sell tickets for the admission of the paying general public as well as to offer complimentary admission and corporate hospitality.

8. 1. 4. The right to produce and sell, when appropriate or authorize production of all official publications connected with the Main Competition, including advertising and credits for Main Competition sponsors in the official programme, bulletins, posters and other materials and tickets.

8. 1. 5. The right to designate the Main Competition sponsors as (including but not limited to) "official sponsors" and "official suppliers".

8. 1. 6. The use and exploitation of any mascot, own logo design, symbol, legend or device, and name and designation of the event title in each case associated with the Main Competition. The development of a mascot, logo design, symbol and/or legend associated with the Main Competition shall be performed by the Organiser at its own expense, with the prior consent of FIDE and with the written final approval of their design by FIDE.

FIDE shall have the right to use any mascot, logo design, symbol and/or legend of the Main Competition without any consideration during the term of this Agreement. FIDE shall be entitled to use the mascot, logo design, symbol and/or legend while carrying out its activities with regards to the Main Competition, and sublicense the same rights to FIDE sponsors and partners. All intellectual rights on any mascot, logo design, symbol and/or legend of the Main Competition shall be transferred free of charge to FIDE after the end of the Main Competition.

8. 1. 7. The right to jointly devise with FIDE the marketing and communications strategies regarding the Main Competition, inter alia those relating to the official website of the Main Competition and social media (including the setup of social media accounts).

8. 1. 8. Franchises, concessions and other sales or display facilities where required by the Main Competition sponsors of all goods, services and products offered for sale or other distribution wherever these are located and all merchandising rights.

8. 1. 9. Distribution of premium gifts or giveaways at the Main Competition.

8. 1. 10. Activities in connection with the Main Competition, including side events, tournaments, exhibition matches, grandmaster classes and “learn to play” sessions held during the Main Competition and any other activities ancillary to or held in conjunction with the Main Competition which may be devised or organised by the Organiser totally at its sole expense.

8. 1. 11. Advertising for the Olympiad and to enter into any contracts and agreements as the Organiser sees fit in connection with any of the foregoing.

8. 1. 12. The Organiser and FIDE shall be permitted to use the picture, likeness, name, autograph, signature, image and biographical details of the Players, Captains, FIDE Officials, Arbiters, VIP’s and any other who attend in Event in connection with the advertisement, publicity, exhibition and commercial exploitation of the Main Competition in any reasonable way so long as such use does not imply personal endorsement of any product or service other than the Main Competition itself and save as the person concerned may otherwise agree in writing provided that the Organiser does not portray the person in an unfavourable manner. If any consent is required for such purpose, then such consent shall be obtained by the Organiser individually.

8. 1. 13. Within the term of the agreement with the Organiser and subject to limitations specified therein, the Organiser shall be granted the licence for the non-exclusive right to use the trademarks and/or logos of FIDE (“FIDE Logos”). The Organiser shall be entitled to use the FIDE Logos while carrying out its activities with regards to the Main Competition as set out in the relevant agreement and sublicense the same rights to all its commercial partners.

8. 2. The Organiser shall be entitled to receive and retain all revenues generated through the exploitation and use of its commercial rights and its broadcasting rights (as described in Article 8.4).

8. 3. The commercial rights granted to the Organiser shall be limited by the existing and future commitments of FIDE to its sponsors and commercial partners (hereinafter referred to as “FIDE Sponsors”). The amount of FIDE Sponsors, sponsors of the Organiser and the volume of their rights shall be specified in the agreement of the Organiser with FIDE. The Organiser shall avoid any form of cooperation with entities in the same areas of business as FIDE Sponsors, companies in the alcohol and tobacco industry or business as well as with companies carrying out other activities. If the Organiser is uncertain whether a cooperation with a third party would contravene the restrictions set out herein, he/she shall send a written request to FIDE asking for approval. In any case, all revenues generated by use of commercial rights granted to FIDE Sponsors by FIDE shall be retained by FIDE. The Organiser shall be obliged to facilitate the execution of FIDE’s commitments as per this article and the relevant agreement with FIDE towards the existing and future FIDE Sponsors under relevant agreements between FIDE and the FIDE Sponsors.

8. 4. FIDE retains commercial, radio and broadcast rights, including photo, video and film rights. At the same time, the Organiser is granted with the exclusive linear broadcast rights and non-exclusive non-linear broadcast. All above-mentioned Organiser’s rights are valid only in the territory of hosting country. The Organiser also has other exclusive printed-media rights in the territory of hosting country.

8. 5. The Organiser shall provide free of charge IOC with the filming permission of the Main Competition for the non-commercial use only.

8. 6. The income from admission charges goes to the Organiser.

8. 7. No proposed sponsor shall be in conflict with the regulations of IOC.

8. 8. The FIDE logo and the head of the corporate logo shall be displayed below:

The FIDE logo shall be displayed in a black colour on a white background. The text describing any event shall not be larger than twice the size of the word FIDE reproduced in the logo.

The present Regulations are governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Switzerland. All disputes arising from or in relation to with the Regulations shall be submitted to CAS (art. 35.1 FIDE Charter). All disputes and claims arising from or in relation to the bidding procedure and obligations of the Organiser may also be submitted to the competent court of the City of Lausanne, Canton Vaud, Switzerland, unless otherwise agreed in the contract with the Organiser.

TIE-BREAK PROCEDURES

I. Team standings in Open and Women's sections (see Article 4.5.1)

The position of teams that finish with the same number of match points shall be determined by application of the following tie-breaking procedure in order of priority:

TB1 – sum of IS(10) for the 10 best team opponents (excluding either the round where the team had a pairing-allocated bye, or if the team did not have a pairing-allocated bye, the team opponent which scored the lowest number of matchpoints). If there is a tie for the lowest number of matchpoints, then the lowest ISi shall be excluded.

Each ISi is determined as $GP_i \times FMP_i$,

where:

GPi is the number of gamepoints scored in a match against opponent “i”,

FMPi is the final number of matchpoints scored by opponent “i”.

TB2 – number of gamepoints scored

TB3 – sum of the matchpoints of 10 teams opponents, excluding the team opponent with the lowest number of matchpoints

Any ties unbroken after the application of TB3 shall remain tied, and the tied teams shall be assigned the top ranking of that set of teams.

II. Team standings in the combined classification (see Article 4.5.2)

The position of teams that finish with the same sum of places (after application of the Tie-Breaks in Appendix 2.I) shall be determined by application of the following tie-breaking procedure in order of priority:

TB1 – sum of the number of matchpoints scored by the Open team and Women's team

TB2 – The sum of the Open team's TB1 (Appendix 2.I) and Women's team's TB1 (Appendix 2.I).

TB3 – The sum of the Open team's TB2 (Appendix 2.I) and Women's team's TB2 (Appendix 2.I).

TB4 – The sum of the Open team's TB3 (Appendix 2.I) and Women's team's TB3 (Appendix 2.I).

Any ties unbroken after the application of TB4 shall remain tied, and the tied teams shall be assigned the top ranking of that set of teams.

III. Individual standings (see Article 4.6.3.2)

If two or more players have equal TPRs, the tie shall be broken as follows:

TB1 – Greater number of games played,

TB2 – Drawing of lots.

IV. Unplayed Matches in Tie-Break Calculations (see Appendix 2.I and Appendix 2.II)

An Unplayed Match is a match where a team has been included in a round's pairings, and all games were scored as defaults. This does not include a pairing-allocated bye.

If a team is unpaired for a round, excluding when they have been awarded a pairing-allocated bye, for tie-break purposes only they will score 1 matchpoint for each round in which they are unpaired.

Calculation of GP

Unplayed win: $GP(uw) = 4$

Unplayed loss: $GP(ul) = 0$

Calculation of FMP

Unplayed win: $FMP(uw) = FMP + UR$

Unplayed win, but opponent plays no further matches: $FMP(uwx) = CMP + UR$

Unplayed loss: $FMP(ul) = FMP + UR$

Calculation of IS

Unplayed win: $IS(uw) = GP(uw) \times FMP(uw)$

Unplayed win, but opponent plays no further matches: $IS(uwx) = GP(uw) \times FMP(uwx)$

Unplayed loss: $IS(ul) = GP(ul) \times FMP(ul)$

where:

FMP (final matchpoints) is the final number of matchpoints scored by the opponent,

CMP (current matchpoints) is the number of team's matchpoints before the unplayed match by the opponent,

UR (unpaired rounds) is the number of rounds in which the opponent was unpaired, excluding pairing-allocated byes.
